Lieut. Read is twenty-eight years old and unmarried. He is one of the most popular naval officers in social circles in Washington, and is a personal friend of many distinguished men here. Hired Horses.

Little has been learned of the cause of he accident which resulted in Lieut. Read's injury. In company with Dr. T. Grayson and Ensign J. S. Dowell, addle horses at a livery stable yesterday fternoon for a ride through Rock Creek Park. The party entered the park about i o'clock and rode about the bridle paths until nearly 6 o'clock.

When near Pierce's Mill, on a bridle oath, Dr. Grayson and Ensign Dowell were riding 300 yards in advance of Lieut. Read. The men in advance were alking and had no knowledge of an accident until a riderless horse galloped ast at full speed. Dr. Grayson called to Ensign Dowell to catch the horse The physician rode back to find the rider, not knowing the animal was the one idden by Lieut, Read.

Turning a bend in the path, Dr. Grayson saw the lieutenant lying face downpathway. His knees were doubled beigns of a struggle.

Ensign Dowell reached the lieutenant bout the time Dr. Grayson alighted from ils horse, and started to the assistance and knees showed he had been down. Found Unconscious.

Dr. Grayson found Lieut. Read was unonscious and in a critical condition. He asked Ensign Dowell to assist him in O's of Teutonic extraction. carrying the naval officer down the hill to a roadway, where automobiles and ensign formed a sort of chair with their mon.
